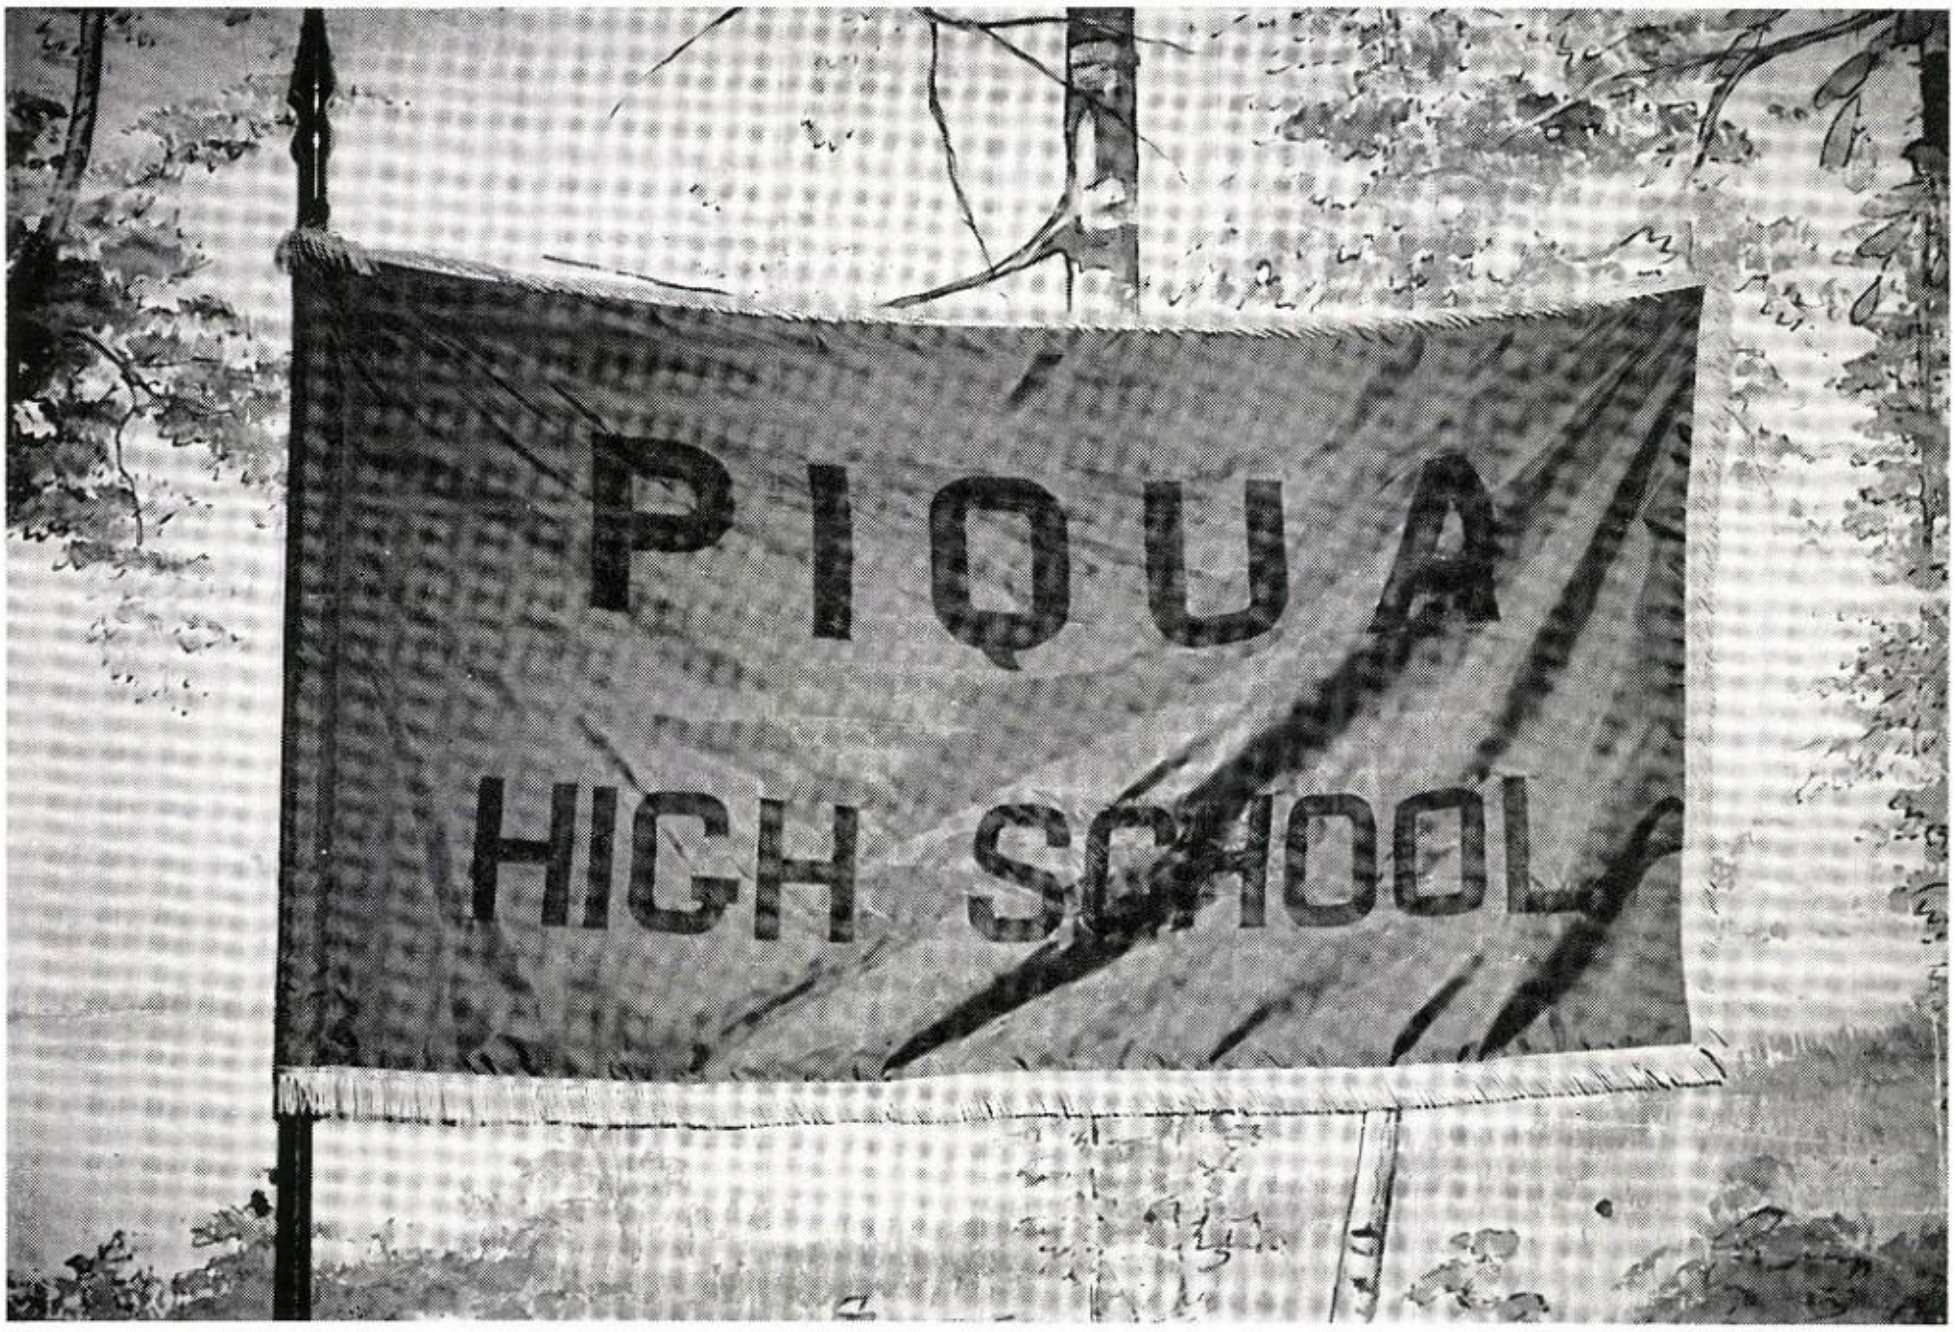
THE PIQUONIAN

Class of 1962



PIQUA CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL

PIQUA, OHIO

DEDICATION

For his never-failing sense of humor, for his warmth, wisdom, and inspiring optimism, and for his sympathetic ear, we, the class of 1962, affectionately dedicate this annual to Robert S. Richardson.

Well-known to the students for his unusual intelligence and wide-ranging interests, Pop shares with us his travel experiences, his appreciation for comedy, his interest in great literature, and his altruistic philosophy of life.

Pop, teacher of English, speech, and Spanish, director of all dramatic activities, and adviser to the Spanish Club, still finds time in his busy schedule to be friend and confidante to all. His ever-present smile radiates cheerfulness and seems to minimize all our troubles.

"We need the comrade heart that understands . . ."

— ¿ Qué desea usted ? Pase usted, caballero; aquí hay todo lo que pueda necesitar. Tome usted asiento si quiere . . .

— Mil gracias. Deseaba yo ver unos ornamentos de iglesia de mucho lujo.[1]

— Aquí encontrará usted cuanto necesite, todo muy bueno, muy barato y para todas las fiestas del año.

— Pues, veremos; porqu[illegible] de un tío muy rico, de Guadalajara, que q[illegible] catedral.

El vendedor era el [illegible]ciante y dueño de una gran joyería s[illegible] calles de México; pero en ella po[illegible]as, pendientes y alfileres de bril[illegible]das, ornamentos de iglesia, luj[illegible]

El tío Sam[illegible] también era muy codicios[illegible] y delgado, con mirada [illegible] pantalones negros y vie[illegible] un violín metido en u[illegible] músico.

Dejó el mú[illegible] a Samuel a presentar ori[illegible] com- paraciones y, po[illegible] músico tenía ya todos los [illegible]espuesta y el giro. Antes [illegible]

— ¿ Tendría uste[illegible] aquí este violín para no tener [illegible] vivo lejos ?

— Ninguno — contest[illegible]

— Pero es que quisiera [illegible] porque lo estimo en mucho.[2]

— Pierda usted cuidado. Vea usted dónde lo coloco, y ahí lo encontrará sin que nadie lo haya tocado.*

Y como trataba de atraer a un buen comprador, colocó cuidadosamente la caja en una vitrina donde todo el mundo la vería.

Al día siguiente, entre la multitud de compradores que entraron en la casa de don Samuel, llegó un caballero de unos cuarenta años de edad, de aspecto aristocrático, elegantemente vestido. Buscaba

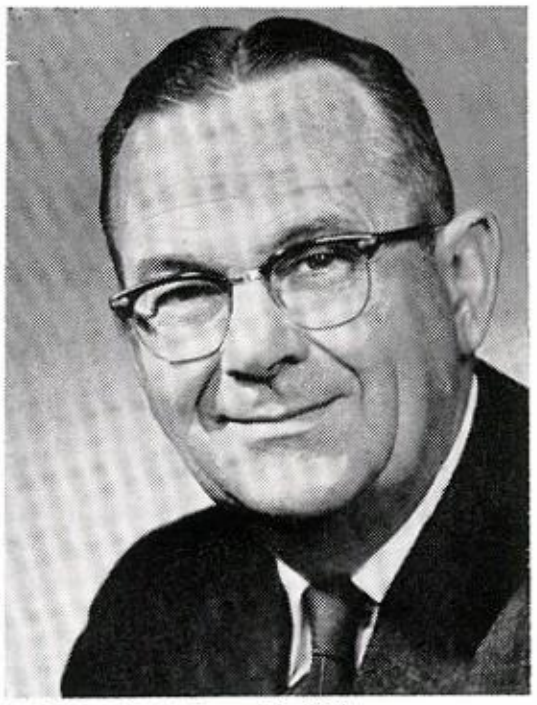
THE students of Piqua Central High School wish to express their appreciation to the administrative body of the Piqua Public Schools, the Board of Education; to Superintendent of Schools W. F. Hoerner; and to Principal Robert G. Winter.



Principal Robert G. Winter
A.B., Wittenberg University
M.A., Ohio State University
Bowling Green State University
Miami University

The Board of Education meets monthly, and oftener if necessary, to discuss urgent school matters: finance, construction, faculty, curriculum.

The five Board members, elected by the citizens of Piqua, are to be commended for their unselfish gifts of time and talent for the benefit of the young people of Piqua. Without the time and effort these persons give, our schools would not be able to function.

Row 1: Dr. George R. Cameron, Optometrist; Miss Jane Rengel, Clerk of the Board of Education; Mr. Robert Reck, President of the Board of Education, Secretary of Hartzell's Industries

Row 2: Mr. Robert Hilbert, Meteor Motor Car Company; Mr. Robert Fite, Vice-President of the Board of Education, Attorney-at-Law; Mr. W. F. Hoerner, Superintendent of Schools; Mr. Harry Oda, Citizens National Bank and Trust Company

IT is with pride as well as regret that we leave Piqua Central: pride in being P. H. S. graduates; pride in our scholastic record; pride in our Piquonian; pride even in our size; regret at leaving the halls of P. H. S.; regret at parting with many friends; regret at the ending of happy times. With these mixed feelings of pride and regret, we say farewell to our Alma Mater.

PEP SONG

Oh hit the line, you Piqua Indians,
Oh hit the line, hit hard and low,
Wherever you go you're sure to know
That we'll be right here with you
Rah! Rah!
Right down the field we're fighting all the time
Till we're sure of victory,
We'll fight for our colors red and blue
Dear Alma Mater, Piqua High, for you.

ALMA MATER

Dear Alma Mater, Piqua High,
Our hearts all turn to thee.
Thou inspiration of our lives
Through all the time to be.
The many lessons learned from you
Will guide our footsteps right;
May all thy days be filled with praise,
And all thy ways be bright.

CLASSES

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Carol Grimes, Vice-President; Bill Meredith, President; Sharron Chapman, Secretary; Diane Trinkle, Treasurer

THE class of 1963 had an enrollment of 200 this school year.

Under the leadership of its officers, elected January 26, and its adviser, Mr. Wendell Carter, the juniors worked hard to plan the Junior-Senior Prom. They undertook various projects to provide funds for this important social event, one of which was the selling of Christmas cookies and candy bars. Proceeds from the class play, "The Form Divine," under the direction of Robert S. Richardson, also added to the treasury.

With these finances the class planned a gala prom and set aside a fund for the coming year.

FUTURE newshawks gain valuable experience as reporters, feature writers, and proofreaders on the staff of Smoke Signals. This school page, published every Saturday in the Piqua Daily Call, is produced by a class of junior girls. They are supervised by Mrs. Charlotte Johnson, who guides them in obtaining the necessary data. Accurate reporting and interesting feature stories are their goals; they provide up-to-date information for the news-hungry students of Piqua Central High School and for the general public.

QUILL AND SCROLL

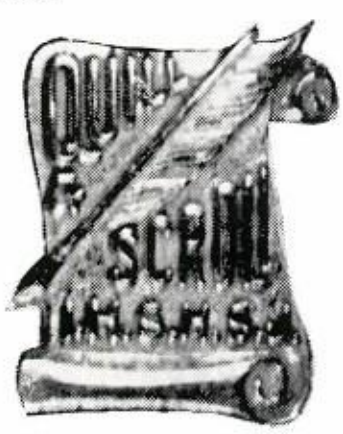
Row 1: Barbara Sweigart, Mikel Rike, Bernadine Fronda, Beckie Bodenmiller, Judy Shawler
Row 2: Jim Bomhard, Sandy Benkert, Cheryl Strouss, Carolyn Simmons, Diane Agenbroad, Paul Comolli

JUNIORS and seniors who rank in the upper third of their class and who have accumulated a minimum of 250 points are eligible for membership in Quill and Scroll, an international journalism society. Points are awarded to Smoke Signals and Piquonian Staff members or to other students for

. . . writing
. . . editing
. . . art work
. . . typing
. . . proofreading
. . . business management
. . . faithful attendance at meetings

Two formal initiations were held in 1962: one in April and the other in May. At the annual Quill and Scroll and National Honor Society banquet in May, the members received their informal initiation.

Officers elected in April were: Jim Bomhard, President; Beckie Bodenmiller, Secretary-Treasurer.



Miss Nellie Otte
Adviser

Row 4: Jeff Negley, Mike Houser, Jerry Redinbo, Herb McClannan, Bill Lloyd, Bob Reas, John Colmar

This honorary organization

. . . is composed of juniors and seniors who are in the top twenty-five per cent of their class scholastically.

. . . has four objectives—scholarship, character, leadership and service—in which members must be outstanding.

. . . may elect only fifteen per cent of the graduating class to membership, five per cent of whom may be elected in the junior year to form a nucleus for the next year's society.

. . . has for its emblem the keystone and the flaming torch, at the base of which are the four letters "S," "C," "L," and "S," denoting the four objectives of the society.

. . . held its formal induction of new members in a school assembly in January.

. . . had an informal initiation and the induction of juniors at a banquet in May.

. . . is advised by Mr. Ray Walker.

OFFICERS:

Bob Richardson, President; Judy Batten, Treasurer; Jim Bomhard, Vice-President; Cheryl McMaken, Secretary.

ATTENDANCE assistants and office helpers have completed another successful year of school services that help to keep the school running smoothly.

These students collect absentee slips from the classrooms and tabulate the list of absentees. They check to see that every student is accounted for each period of the day. If a student is missing from the room in which he should be present, it is their responsibiilty to determine his whereabouts and report the circumstance to the main office. They are responsible for typing, in quadruplicate, a list of the students absent. They check the lunch count taken during the first period class and report to the cooks the number to eat lunch in the cafeteria. Also they deliver messages throughout the building.

These assistants are under the supervision of Mrs. Margaret Slaughter during the first two periods and of Miss Ella Farley during the remainder of the day.

Director James Carter

A concert band is organized each year to increase music appreciation at Piqua Central and to encourage the development of the musical abilities of P. H. S. students.

This year the concert band, under the direction of James C. Carter, presented a winter concert February 3 and a spring concert May 12. They also played programs of short selections for the students of Wilder and Bennett Junior High Schools.

At the district contest, held in Piqua March 31, the band received a "I" rating; and received a "I" rating at the state competition in Lima.

Director Fred Roberts

Piqua Central's Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Fred Roberts, had a busy season.

The Orchestra and the Varsity Choir combined for a Christmas vesper service December 10. In April the orchestra played at Greenville High School, and May 12 it joined with the Concert Band for the annual spring concert.

Other appearances were at the Junior and Senior Class Play.

The Orchestra travelled to Troy March 3 for the State Orchestra Contest and received a "II" rating. The Orchestra and Student Council were hosts March 31 to 26 bands and 26 choruses, which participated in the Regional Band and Chorus Contest here.

The Orchestra finished the season by playing for Class Night and for Commencement.

Director John L. Davis

CENTRAL'S Varsity Choir, under the new leadership of Mr. John L. Davis, had a full year. Included in its schedule were programs presented for Rotary, Kiwanis, the Y. M. C. A. building banquet, the junior high schools, Bradford and Covington high schools, Thanksgiving and Easter services, and an ecumenical youth rally.

Highlighting the year was "Our Salute to Music," a program in three parts featuring songs of the Old South, religious selections, and excerpts from the Broadway musicals "The King and I" and "South Pacific." The program included humorous end men, an orchestra, vocalists, and two groups of girls who performed dances arranged by Joanne Mong.

March 31, the group received a "I" rating in District Contest; April 28, a "II" rating in the state contest.

OFFICERS:

Seated: Dixie Trittschuh, Secretary; Peggy Shie, Vice-President.

Standing: Tom Buecker, Treasurer; Jim Bomhard, President.

GIRLS' CHORUS

THE Piqua Girls' Chorus is composed of 39 students from the tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grades. The group sang twice during the Christmas season: once at St. Paul's Church and again for the Piqua Garden Club. The Chorus supplemented the Varsity Choir in the annual Christmas concert and for the spring musical, "Our Salute to Music."

Commenting on this vocal group, Director John Davis says: "This group fills a need in the school for the training of students not selected for the Varsity Choir. Many students like to sing who did not make the first group this year. They could improve and find enjoyment through singing in the chorus."

Although the Indians were the shortest team in the M.V.L. this year, they kept their competitors always aware that they were fighting. Coach James Hardman kept up the morale of his "Ten Little Indians" throughout the season. Seniors on the team set an example of right attitude for the underclassmen, who look strong for the future.

(In contrast to most sports, Cross Country victories go to the low scorer.)

Cross County, under the direction of Coach Wendell Carter, had a successful season, with a 2-3 record.

Comprising the largest number of boys ever out for the sport, the squad ran the practice course at the Piqua Country Club.

Three years of effort paid off this year for the wrestling squad. Due to individual effort and the perceptive direction of Coach Paul Faehl, the Indians won six of ten matches. The Tribe sent six boys into the second round of the District Wrestling Meet, an excellent record considering that wrestling is still in its youth at Piqua Central.

COACHING STAFF

Row 1: G. P. Wertz, Athletic Director, Coach Paul Faehl
Row 2: Coaches Wendell Carter, George Chalou, Dick Pearson, Jim Hardman, Watson Farrar, Robert Jones, Joe Balassone

The boys' athletics program at Piqua Central provides wholesome recreation for participants and spectators alike.

Mr. G. P. Wertz, athletic director, attended Heidelberg College, where he lettered in four major sports: football, basketball, baseball, and track. He is well known for having been Central's football coach from 1925 to 1950, when he was regarded as one of the top coaches in the state. In addition to being athletic director, he assists with cross country.

Dick Pearson, track coach, is a Piqua Central alumnus and was an important member of the football, basketball, and baseball teams during his high school years, winning letters in all three sports. At Wittenberg he starred in varsity football for three years. Besides coaching varsity track, he also coaches freshman basketball and freshman football.

Coach Paul Faehl is a former grid star at Piqua Central. At Ohio State University he starred as an aggressive lineman on the successful Buckeye football team that scored a victory over Southern California in the 1950 Rose Bowl game. At Central he is physical education instructor and varsity football coach. His other coaching assignments include varsity wrestling and junior high track.

Basketball Coach Jim Hardman was elected a member of the All-Ohio basketball team in his senior year at South Charleston High School, culminating four successful years of basketball participation. In addition, he won four letters in baseball. He attended the Ohio State University, going from there to Wittenberg, where he played college basketball and baseball. He joined the Piqua Central faculty in 1956, where he is varsity basketball coach, varsity baseball coach, and backfield coach for the varsity football team.

Wendell Carter, an alumnus of Piqua Central, was awarded letters in track and basketball during his high school years. He is cross country coach and assistant track coach. In addition, he fills an important role as football and basketball statistician.

Coach Watson Farrar was graduated from Langley High School, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, where he lettered in football, swimming, and track. At Indiana State College he was active in these same sports and was elected captain of the swimming team. He coaches reserve basketball and is assistant baseball coach and line coach for varsity football.

The varsity golf coach and freshman football coach, Joe Balassone, attended Thomas High School, Thomas, West Virginia; Potomac State College, Keyser, West Virginia; and Eastern Kentucky State College. He was a member of the basketball, baseball and football teams in high school, earning letters in all three, and played football in college until he was injured in his senior year.

George Chalou, a Central graduate, lettered here in football and basketball, and then went on to play football at Manchester College, where he was elected captain of the football team in his senior year. He is varsity tennis coach and junior high football and basketball coach.

Also serving as a junior high football and basketball coach is Robert Jones, a Marion-Harding alumnus, who played varsity high school football until he was sidelined by an injury in his senior year. At Otterbein College he was manager of the football team his freshman and sophomore years and trainer his junior and senior years.

Snow in April meant a delayed baseball schedule, but the '62 Varsity, coached by Jim Hardman and his assistant, Watson Farrar, made a good start April 6 by defeating Fairmont, last year's M. V. L. champion, 3 to 2.

Under the leadership of Coach Farrar, the reserve squad played an extensive schedule and received valuable experience for the coming year.

This year's golf team learned the value of that "one" stroke which meant the difference between victory and defeat. They displayed the qualities of honesty, grace, and even temperament, despite their inconsistency. Success is not measured by these qualities in the records, but the experience was well rewarding for its participants.
